Southern Ag Exchange Network

Funding was made available through the Southern Ag Exchange Network (SAGE). The Southern Ag Exchange Network Is The Southern Region Effort Of The U.S. Department Of Agriculture's Farm And Ranch Stress Assistance Network (FRSAN), Which Is Made Up Of Four Regional Groups Charged With Addressing Heightened Stress And Elevated Suicide Rates In Rural Farming Communities.

About our Department

Professional school social workers play an integral part in the pursuit of educational excellence. School social workers are charged to analyze barriers to learning and achievement and to develop and implement strategies which address and eliminate identified barriers to student learning.

Thus, school social workers help students to:

- * Increase academic success
- * Cope with crisis situations
- * Develop self-discipline
- * Learn problem-solving and decision making skills
- * Improve attendance
- * Remain in school and graduate

Compulsory Attendance Law

The Georgia compulsory school attendance law, O.C.G.A. 20-2-690.1, requires that all children between their sixth and sixteenth birthdays attend school regularly during the entire school year.

McKinney -Vento Act (Homelessness)

The McKinney-Vento Homeless Assistance Act defines “homeless children and youths” as “individuals who lack a fixed, regular, and adequate nighttime residence.”

Please contact your school social worker for additional information or for homeless assistance.

Georgia Department of Education

Mission Statement

The school social worker facilitates the education and individual potential of students by providing services that promote school success.

Vision

Every student will learn and achieve at his/her potential.

Principles

- The school social worker will collaborate and consult with students, parents, school administrators, faculty, and the community in the identification of family and student support services.
- The school social worker will respect the individual differences of children and families.
- The school social worker will provide appropriate interventions and services that help children and families that are at risk for educational failure.
- School social workers develop relationships with students and families to facilitate the desired changes identified by the student, family and school.
